

VOLUNTEER CODE OF ETHICS

- As a Suburban Hospice volunteer, I realize I am subject to the same Code of Ethics that binds all professionals involved with this agency.
- I accept these responsibilities and respect matters of confidentiality.
- I understand that my work as a Suburban Hospice volunteer has no monetary compensation. Having accepted this position, I will do my work with the same ethic expected of paid staff.
- I will plan and carry out my assigned tasks in a professional manner.
- I will work with my supervisor to find tasks that I enjoy that are suited to my abilities.
- I will be reliable and consistent in my attendance as a volunteer.
- I promise to remain truthful and avoid misrepresentation.
- I will take care to ensure that all information I learn about patients, family, and staff members is kept completely confidential.
- I will seek to be inclusive and embrace diversity in all our activities.
- I will respect the dignity of every person I serve.
- I will keep safety—for myself and others—at the forefront of all volunteer activities.
- I will set healthy boundaries for myself and know my limits.
- I will follow guidelines of training and report any injuries immediately to my supervisor.
- I will go to my supervisor with questions or concerns and provide feedback as needed that will improve the volunteer program.
- I will help to create a positive work environment and be a contributing member of the team.
- I will display compassion, respect, and sensitivity to patients, family members, and staff.
